Warren G. Harding Senior High School on a winter morn. . . fifty-five teachers and eighteen hundred eighty-one students fill the building to over-flowing . . . any hour of the day the class-rooms, study halls, auditorium, gymnasiums, shops, laboratories, office, library, and corridors hum with activity . . . in the evenings—night school, club meetings, play practice, dances, entertainments, janitors at work, lectures, and athletic events hold sway . . . only in the wee small hours does silence descend upon this building, our high school.

JUNE

SENIOR PLAYS

January . . . Mr. Kenneth Kraker with his artisans and Miss Edna Kennedy with her art classes effect effective settings for "Seventh Heaven" . . . Mr. O. A. Lovett congratulated on appealing production . . . Betty reveals a spiritual charm in interpretation of Diane . . . "I am a very remarkable fellow" reiterates Chico — yes, and Jack proves a "remarkable" actor . . . "Stevy" goes to town in the villianous role of Nana . . . Ugh! The Rat! but we hand it to you, Kenny . . . smiles are synonymous with Boul (Walt) and his "jaloppy" . . . securing a garb long enough to cover the priest (Birrell) a real achievement . . . January Class and sponsors in "Seventh Heaven" over artistic (and financial) success of play.

Cast: Diane, Betty Glinn; Chico, Jack Ankeny; The Rat, Kenneth Lamont; Nana, Marian Stevenson; Arlette, Dorothy Mayers; Maximillian Gobin, Robert Hadley; Uncle Georges, Arthur Lamberti; Aunt Valentine, Jean Marshall; Boul, Walton Mason; Brissac, Kenneth Richards; Pere Chevillon, George Birrell; Recan, Ostap Danyluke; Sergeant of Police, Kenneth Macaulay; Blonde, Harold Miles; Lamplighter, Bill Goldner.

Play staff: Prompters, Norma Bane, Katherine Guthrie; Wardrobe Mistresses, Alice Robbins, Leta Hayes; Business Manager, Allan Wise; Advertising, Margaret Wood.

June . . . Play Committee finally conquers difficulties by choosing "She stoops to Conquer" . . . cast absorbs Cleveland Playhouse production for interpretive suggestion . . . Larry, as Tony Lumpkin, wins applause by natural technique . . . Stanitz (Marlow) takes lessons on trembling knees . . . Ruth Janice very fetching as Kate and would-be barmaid . . . poor Mr. Hardcastle goes around in circles . . . Mrs. Hardcastle has quite a time with her dear son's love match and brilliance . . . the intelligent, skilled servants help Hardcastle quite unadmirably . . . Frank (Hastings) and Nancy (Miss Neville) finally overcome their obstacles on the "bumpy road to love".

Eighteenth century settings and costumes fascinate . . . production of Goldsmith's hilariously comic characterizations, situations, and dialogue chalk up another hit for Director O. A. Lovett . . . June Class senses Hollywood fame for its talented members.

Cast: Tony Lumpkin, Larry Taijala; Kate Hardcastle, Ruth Janice Knofsky; Young Marlow, James Stanitz; Sir Charles Marlow, Graham Gilliss; Mrs. Hardcastle, Jean Kelts; Squire Hardcastle, Ted Saker; George Hastings, Frank Ogden; Diggory, Ray Baskett; Roger, George Job; Dick, Albin Shine; Thomas, Bill Call; Stingo, Landlord of "Three Pigeons", Aatos Nikkila; Slang, Glen Kyser; Jimmy, Jerry Kreske; Mat Muggins, John Massar; Twist (Tom), George Duche; Aminadab, Bill Dailey; Constance Neville, Nancy McConnaughy; Dolly the Maid, Josephine Knoske.

Play staff: Stage Manager, John Martin; Property, Robert Heinlein, Tom DeCamp, Marjorie Dorson; Business Manager, Tom Richardson; Tickets, Andy Matyas; Publicity, Mary K. O'Rourke; Wardrobe, Harriet Rice, Rose Campana; Prompters, Jean Newton, Irene Karl; Ushers, Jean Wyres, Betty Zeigler.

14—Coach Eaton.

Harding High baseball nine of 1938 not so successful as teams of the past . . . only four veterans from 1937 team return . . . Coach Lafferty does well with material at hand . . . at times team packs plenty of punch . . . Presidents break even with nine victories and nine defeats . . . Red and White battles way to district finals at Canton, but there lose to Canton McKinley . . . Sepanek, Ghere, Christie, and Palovich outstanding players for Warren club . . . Bizilo, ace pitcher.

Outlook for 1939 season much brighter . . . many veterans return and Coach Lafferty has American Legion stars to choose from.

1938 tracksters of Coach Garrett best ever in annals of Harding High . . . O'Rourke and Showacre star . . . Bogan Reed, point-gatherer . . . Red and White undefeated in dual competition for third consecutive season . . . Warren athletes set at least one new record in every meet . . . crack records at Mansfield, Pitt, Miami, and Salem relays.

Garrett's men shatter two Tri-City League marks . . . swamp Rayen and Sharon to win Tri-City League championship for third straight season . . . place fourth in Miami U. relays . . . come out second in Salem district meet . . . tie for ninth in State meet.

O'Rourke a record smashing career . . . 6' 2¾" at Pitt (previous record 6' 2½") . . . 6' 5½" at Mansfield (within ½" of national scholastic record) . . . 6' $3\frac{3}{16}$" at Salem district meet (previous record 6' 1⅝" in 1931).

Showacre, star discus heaver: 127' 4½" in Salem relays (126' 4½" previous record made by Bill Smith in 1930) . . . 128' 9" at Miami for new record . . . 129' 1¾" in final Tri-City at Youngstown (record was 123' 11" of McKay in 1937) . . . 130' 2½" at Salem District meet (old record 120' 10" by George Johnson in 1930).

Other records shattered . . . school track record in mile run, 4:47 by Bob Byrnes . . . school and track mark in 220 yard low hurdles, 27 seconds flat by Glenn Henning . . . track record for mile relay, 3:44.7 by Thompson, Ronyak, Ghere and Henning.

BASEBALL TEAM (1938)

Row three—Simmons, Manus, Hyde.
Row two—Ghere, Laakso, Palovich, Christie, Boyd, Mr. Lafferty.
Row one—Bizilo, Ryder, Ronyak, Sepanek, Armstrong, Yoho, Zancha.

Lettermen ruled by Ed Kosola, ye basketball bright light . . . vice presidency falls to Ralph Brownlee of football fame . . . prexy and Jack Showacre in charge of annual Homecoming hop . . . Corsatea reveals that Mr. Mollenkopf helps stow away beans at monthly feed . . . hard-working "pigskin huggers" see Coaches Hill and Garrett's alma mater, West Virginia, meet defeat in Western Reserve contest in Cleveland.

Annual football banquet . . . "Pitt" gridiron celebrities brought in local limelight . . . no less than Johnnie Chickerneo himself . . . likewise, his teammates, Marshall Goldberg and Curly Stebbins . . . gold footballs presented to two year men: Hary Hyde, Ralph Brownlee, Levi Johnson, and George Manus . . . coaches honored . . . Andy Matyas awarded gold football for sportsmanship.

Andy Matyas heads organization second semester . . . "golden" awards to faithful varsity men . . . gold basketballs presented by Coach Hill to players with record of two seasons: Eugene Smith, Walfred Pelto, George Manus, George Williams, and Bill Call.

Coach Garrett bestows gold emblems upon two year tracksters: Bogan Reed, Robert Byrnes, Neil Ronyak, and Glenn Henning . . .Coach Lafferty's men of double years' service wear gold baseballs: Harry Hyde, Glenn Scott, and James Boyd.

1938 a sub-par team . . . classy warriors of the golf clubs developed by Coach Johnson . . . eagles and birdies on every green . . . mythical Tri-City championship (Niles, Girard, and Warren) won by Harding golfers . . . McClure, Glaven, Modic, Natale, and Ondo smash long drives . . . Sharon, Niles, Struthers, Girard, Youngstown Chaney, Youngstown South, and Salem offer the opposition . . . Sharon only team to get better of "Prexies".

A tisket . . . A tasket . . . a green and blue basket!

NO—NO—NO—NO! . . . It's not "The Lambeth Walk" that's got him . . . Nor "The Shag" and the "Missing Yellow Basket" has nothing to do with it. It's those distinctive Green, Blue, and Brown VARSITY-TOWN suits that have him all a dither. They're here now in mixtures of every imaginable description . . . Carefully, colorfully blended numbers. Escort one into your spring wardrobe, and strut in style to any old rhythm.

At $21.50 and up

Originality is a quality of the imagination. It is the ability to take the usual elements of picture and story and present them to your student body in a new, different and interesting fashion. Our School Service organization has long been noted for its true originality in Year Book planning.
